

What Are People Saying?

Chris Coogan, jazz musician, has been described as "...a masterful pianist."

- New York Times

"The GNGC was outstanding. Not only in terms of performance, but also of Spirit. More than just the music, they conveyed the meaning and the message of each song with power and grace."

- Keith Welch, Pastor

The Church of the Nazarene, Norwalk, CT (2004)

"GNGC was most inspirational. I have had wonderful comments from all of the guests." Said regarding performance at the 2004 Cancer Memorial Service sponsored by The Swim Across the Sound.

- Carol Kuhta

St. Vincent's Medical Center, Bridgeport, CT (2004)

"The Good News Gospel Choir is good news indeed. Under the creative musical leadership of Chris Coogan, these singers bring hope, excitement and inspiration to the places where they sing."

- Ed Thompson, Minister of Music

Unitarian Church, Westport, CT (2004)

"People who attended the concert said it was absolutely fabulous - it was the best! A very wonderful evening." Comments regarding the concert sponsored by Janice & Bill Gasparrinni Endowment for the Arts Series at St. Roch's.

- Betty Yager, Chairperson/Coordinator of event

St. Roch's Catholic Church, Greenwich, CT (2004)

"Chris Coogan and his choir show us the amazing things that can happen when talent, energy, and faith intersect! His inspired leadership helps the choir project a kind of joy that we all need these days."

- Rev. James Gertmenian, Senior Minister

Plymouth Congregational Church, Minneapolis, MN (2004)